IOWA SOCIETY
of Association Executives

 BENEFITS
of membership

The Iowa Society of Association Executives (ISAE) promotes the professional approach to association management by the exchange of experience, ideas and opinions. The Society's philosophy is that education and networking pay dividends in your professional growth for your association's future.

Every day something new is happening in the profession of association management. The Iowa Society of Association Executives meets the educational needs of members by providing opportunities to come together to learn and share ideas. Educational meetings, special activities, seminars and social programs enable members to share and lend their expertise in association management.

The more than 250 members of ISAE direct the activities of trade association, professional societies and association management companies. The cost of membership is low...and the return is high.

Make ISAE a priority for your career and personal development. Membership in the Society is a solid investment to keep in touch with an ever-changing world and increase your expertise, effectiveness on the job and knowledge base.

ISAE is the state allied society of the American Society of Association Executives.
